

Trucking

Every move the trucker makes is tracked by a computer.
We have logs we need to keep every time we stop, pull over,
and take a leak.

The truck's speed, braking, acceleration is all recorded.
This is not a cowboy on the open range.
This is more like 1984 than 1894.

Finn Murphy,
The Guardian, October 10, 2017