

Trumpists say

Father, we just claim Oklahoma for you.
Every square inch, we claim it for you in the name of Jesus. ...

We just thank you and we claim Oklahoma for you as the authority that I have as governor and the spiritual authority and the physical authority that you give me.
I claim Oklahoma for you that we will be a light to our country and to the world.
We thank you that your will was done on Tuesday and Father, that you will have your way with our state, with our education system, with everything within the walls behind me.

Kevin Stitt, November 10, 2022, after being reelected Oklahoma's governor
