

Trumpists say

I do believe that the people who are engaging in selective prosecution, vindictive prosecution, using it, doing it, when I say it's rigged, they go into a place where they know the fight is unfair. It's as bad as it was in Alabama in 1950 — if a person happened to be Black — in order to get justice. And that's what they did in New York. So it was fundamentally rigged.

Dan Bishop, GOP nominee for AG in NC, complaining that only Republicans have been charged with and convicted of covering up payments to a porn star to win an election, and implying that New Yorkers in 2024 don't allow whites on juries and lynch them in the way white Alabamans did to blacks in the 1950s
