

Trumpists say

I made a mistake and I think humans are flawed and we all make mistakes, Tulsi. I think we can all look ourselves in the mirror and admit that once in our life we have all made a mistake.

I'm having to admit this on national television for all the country to see and I have the courage to do so because, in order to move past this and to move forward and be an effective member of Congress, I have to face my mistakes. ...

I'm not a fraud. I'm not a fake. I didn't materialize from thin air. I worked damn hard to get where I am my entire life.

Congressman-elect George Santos, to Tulsi Gabbard about lying during his campaign about his grandparents being Holocaust survivors, being Jewish, having worked for Goldman Sachs & Citibank, having graduated college, owning 13 properties, his income, mother's death, residence ...
