

Trumpists say

You can tell Putin's on top of his game.
One thing he said that, it really rung a bell,
is the propaganda media machiney over here,
they sell anything they possibly can
to go after Russia,
We kept forcing NATO all the way to Eastern Europe, and Putin just got tired of it.
He said, "Listen, I do not want missiles on my border from the United States.
It'd be like Russia coming to Mexico and putting missiles in Mexico."
I can understand what he's talking about.
