

Warmongers say

You would carpet bomb where ISIS is – not a city, but the location of the troops.
You use air power directed – and you have embedded special forces to direction the air power.
But the object isn't to level a city.
The object is to kill the ISIS terrorists.

Ted Cruz,
Commander-in-Chief wannabe, when asked if he would carpet bomb Raqqa, the ISIS capital and home to 220,000 people, who he thinks can be individually targeted for death by carpet bombing instead of being killed indiscriminately
