

Wealth inequality

Being rich in today's America means not having to come across anyone who isn't.

Exclusive prep schools, elite colleges, private jets, gated communities, tony resorts, symphony halls and opera houses, vacation homes in the Hamptons and other exclusive vacation sites all insulate them from the rabble.

Robert Reich,
Christian Science Monitor, February 15, 2014