

Wealth inequality

I think not having the estate tax recognizes the people that are investing as opposed to those that are just spending every darn penny they have, whether it's on booze, or women or movies.

Chuck Grassley, Republican Senator from Iowas, explaining why estates worth more than $5.5/$11 million left by individuals/couples shouldn't be taxed but smaller ones should