

Wealth inequality

The rich should certainly worry about which way the wind is blowing. According to a survey by Pew Research, Americans' views of why people are rich have changed significantly over the past few years. A growing share of respondents said the main reason people were rich was because they had more advantages than others; between 2018 and 2020 the figure rose from 42 to 65 per cent.

Rhymer Rigby, FT Wealth, October 2020