

Wretched excess

The bleak, beetle-backed monster parked in the courtyard of the hotel lays claim to being the new fastest, most powerful, most expensive road car ever produced by a global auto maker.

Those numbers, should you want to forward them to your accountant in Macau: about 285 mph; 1,500 horsepower; $3 million.

Wall Street Journal, April 8–9, 2017, on the Bugatti Chiron, made by Bugatti, part of Germany's VW Group